Lee Brown,

Managing Director at JB Foods

WELCOME...

A warm welcome to our June edition of Ingredients Directory. We hope that the warmer weather is here to stay and that trade continues to return to normal for you all. It has no doubt been hectic so we hope you have a little time to spare to check out our offers and inspiration this month.

With greater demand from end users for meat free alternatives much of our recipe inspiration is themed around plant based and vegan options. More and more consumers are making a conscious decision to reduce weekly intake of meat on both lifestyle and ethical grounds so its important that menus provide options. Both our Bang Bang Cauliflower (page 5) and Asparagus Spears (12) can be customised to offer as 100% vegan options, you can easily switch out the Parmesan from the latter of the two. Both dishes are incredibly versatile and make excellent starters or sides. They work equally well as dine in or out options, keeping things nice and flexible for the changeable times we live in. We are presenting more and more of our recipe options in a "take out" style to show case our fantastic Vegware range, but you can obviously serve to suit. Don't hesitate to ask if you would like to know more about our packaging range.

To counter our plant based and meat free menu options we also showcase J Browns Craft Butchers 98% VL Stew & Jacks Farms Minute Steak, with a tasty steak pie and also a Philly Cheese Steak loaded fries recipe. We really hope you enjoy!

So many of our wonderful customers have worked so incredibly hard to re-purpose, re-model and re-open your businesses, a massive well done to you all. We are humbled and pay homage to you this month with our wall of fame. Our wall of fame is just a small representation of what so many of you have done to #makescottishhospitalitygreatagain. Well done everyone and continue to keep strong!
